

Assistant Executive Steward Needed

The Muckleshoot Casino is looking for dynamic culinary leadership to assist the Executive Steward. The Assistant Executive Steward will assist the Executive Steward in supervising daily operations of all stewarding personnel, overseeing the maintenance, inventory, and sanitation in all food production areas in accordance with Tribal, company, and departmental policies and procedures and with health and safety codes.

Culinary Arts Degree required and/or Previous experience in culinary leadership or equivalent experience may be substituted for formal culinary school or training. High school diploma or GED equivalent required. A minimum of five (5) years experience working in a large commercial food service industry required. A minimum of five (5) years supervisory experience required. Culinary Associate of Occupational Studies (AOS) degree preferred.

Interested candidates should visit the Muckleshoot Indian Casino's website (www.muckleshootcasino.com) to apply online (to access the Career Center page, select "Career Opportunities" from the home page). Click on the position of interest and then click on apply for this position online.